Mr. Carney has been a practicing attorney since 1967 with extensive construction law experience. He has been involved in over two hundred arbitration cases, both as an advocate and as an arbitrator. He has written a number of law review articles.

Mr. Carney spent the bulk of his legal career with U.S. Steel where he worked with its American Bridge Division (construction of high rise buildings and bridges) and its Cyclone Fence Division (fence erection for highway projects). Following his official retirement from U.S. Steel, he spent two years representing U.S. Steel in two multi-million dollar construction cases in the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

He is currently working with another metals company in the drafting and negotiation of contracts for the construction and purchase of equipment for two new plants.

Mr. Carney is an experienced labor negotiator and litigator. He is a nationally recognized expert in employee benefits.

Mr. Carney's daily rate to serve as an arbitrator is $800 per day and $175 per hour for pre-hearing procedures. No cancellation fee.
